To be considered for inclusion in the 2024 WoW Anthology, the following conditions require your agreement:

Please check to indicate affirmative response.

I have read and agree to follow the handbook guidelines.

I will attend at least five monthly WoW meetings either in person or on Zoom before September 1, 2023.

I will present selections from the draft version of my story in regular meeting critiques before January 1, 2024.

I agree to provide references within my manuscript to town characters and places outlined in the handbook.

I agree to provide edits to two assigned authors in Round 1 of editing process by February 15, 2024.

I agree to review these same selections and my own again when I received the book as a formatted ebook. (You are encouraged to look at all selections at this point.)

I agree that anthology editors—Stan C. Smith and Goldie A. Edwards—have final determination whether selection meets the criteria for participation outlined in the anthology handbook, exhibits a level of writing craft appropriate for publication, and if selection matches the overall tone set for our targeted audience.

I understand I will be required to sign a publication contract before publication including the information presented in the handbook.

Please consider my selection for inclusion in the proposed Writers of Warrensburg 2024 Anthology, Mystic Springs, A Collection of _____?_____.
